

In family management subsystem the user can join family or invite new family member, then the application will add the new family and user in to a same family tree. So that they can view others' profile in family tree page